I have a life long passion for reading, writing and all aspects of literature. I qualified as a teacher in 1972 and have had a long and varied career in teaching. I am a retired Primary School Head Teacher.

During my career I worked as a Primary Teacher Advisor for English visiting numerous schools around Warwickshire advising on all aspects of English, leading staff meetings and I ran courses for teachers on all aspects of children's writing, reading and use of books. The main focus of my BPhil Ed degree was children's literature, reading, writing and the use of books. I have had many articles published in Educational magazines and journals over the years and enjoy sharing my passion and zeal for the subject.

I feel honoured and privileged to be asked to judge the Festival of Arts Junior Writing Entries again and look forward to the challenge with enthusiasm and excitement.
