SAFETY OF PERFORMERS

It is necessary for teachers and parents to be aware of their responsibilities in entering performers with limited physical or special needs, bearing in mind the limitations imposed by the stage and surrounding environment. It is also necessary for the teacher or parent to pass on to the Adjudicator, via the organiser, any such information that would impact on the Adjudicators' work.

Piano Section Rules and Conditions of Entry: Amateurs only!

- Entry Forms: Competitors must send their entry form and fee to the section secretary by the closing date. To comply with the safeguarding procedures, the official Nuneaton Festival of Arts entry form must be completed and signed. Amateurs only. (Entry forms are available to download from the festival website).
NB: 'CLASS' REFERS TO THE FESTIVAL CLASS NUMBER.
- Email Entries: Will be accepted. The email must give all the information requested on the entry form. However, the entry fee together with the signed declaration on the entry form MUST be received by the section secretary by the closing date for entries.
- Payment: Payment may be made by cheque, (made payable to Nuneaton Festival of Arts) Cash or by Bank transfer.
- Entries: There is no limit to the number of classes entered, provided the competitor is within the age limit, However, no competitor may enter more than one grade based class (classes 420 - 423) and no competitor may perform more than once in the same class OR play the same piece in more than one class.
NOTE: This does not apply to teachers in class 415 (teacher and pupil piano duets) in which only the pupil is adjudicated.
- Late Entries: Late entries may be accepted at the discretion of the section secretary.
- Own Choice Titles: Titles and composers must be given on the entry form. The festival is under a legal obligation to supply to the Performing Rights Society details of all the items performed at the festival. The co-operation of teachers and competitors in sending information at the correct time would be very much appreciated.
- Music: A copy of the piece of music chosen MUST be made available for the use of the adjudicator.
- Photography: No photography or filming by equipment of any kind including mobile phones, is allowed during the performances.

Federation Rules on copyright/performing rights.

- Competitors are advised that it is in their own interest to note carefully the general rules as well as any section rules. Amateurs only!
- 'Own Choice' - Titles and composers of 'own choice' pieces MUST be given on the entry form.
Copyright - The festival is under a legal obligation to supply to the Performing Arts Society details of ALL items performed at the Festival and the co-operation of teachers and competitors in sending information at the correct time would be appreciated. All performances must comply with the copyright arrangements detailed below.
- The British and International Federation of Festivals for Music, Dance and Speech (BIFF) has negotiated group licensing arrangements with the Phonographic Performance Limited (PPL) for Music (PRS), Music Publishers Association (MPA), Copyright Licensing Agency (CLA) and Author's Licensing and Collecting Society (ALCS).
Further information regarding copyright permission may be obtained from the BIFF at www.federationoffestivals.org.uk
- The Committee reserve the right to exclude material which may cause offence, or could be considered prejudicial or discriminatory in any way.
- The Nuneaton Festival – is pleased to announce that it has entered into an agreement with the Author's Licensing and Collecting Society. This means that entrants do not have to seek copyright permission for any poetry, prose or solo dramatic items* performed, to a time limit of 10 minutes. Performers and teachers will be delighted to know that their participation in this festival means that authors will be directly reimbursed as a consequence of their works being performed at this festival. Duologues and group dramatic activity are not covered by this agreement and copyright for these items should be sought by performers at the time of entry.
*Dramatic items must be announced with the title and author at the time of the performance to qualify for copyright indemnity and the performer must not change the words or gender of the character.
Nuneaton Festival of Arts Disclaim all responsibility for copies of copyright works used without permission of the copyright owners.

"She played magnificently"* The Guardian

Kathryn Page has given over 20 recitals at the South Bank and Wigmore Hall, both as soloist and chamber music pianist. She has toured Norway, Italy, Ireland and Australia where she gave seven recitals at the Sydney Festival and broadcast for ABC.

At home Kathryn has performed at many of the leading music festivals and has given numerous live broadcasts for BBC radio 3 from Broadcasting House, St Georges, Bristol and St David's Hall, Cardiff.

Her interest in contemporary music has led to many world premieres including works by Gary Carpenter, Alisdair Nicholson and Django Bates. She has worked with many established artists including David Campbell, John Lenehan, Joanna MacGregor and Sting! TV work has ranged from a live recital from Paris on CNN, an appearance on the Korean broadcasting network, several performances on Irish TV and a much treasured Blue Peter badge.

She recorded the complete set of six Mozart-Grieg piano duo sonatas for BBC Radio Three. In recent years Kathryn has worked prolifically as a popular and busy adjudicator for the British Federation of Festivals, ABRSM examiner, and administrator for EPTA UK, the Chetham's International Summer School For Pianists and the Manchester International Concerto Competition. She has recorded Bartok's Sonata for 2 Pianos, Stravinsky's 'Rite of Spring' and Camilleri's Concerto for Two Pianos and Percussion with Murray McLachlan, and gave an acclaimed performance of Messiaen's Quartet for the End of Time at Chetham's. Kathryn teaches piano at Chetham's School of Music. She lives in Cheshire and has five children..

We are delighted to welcome Kathryn back this year.

COPIES OF OWN CHOICE WORKS FOR THE ADJUDICATOR

The Music Publishers' Association Code of Practice on photocopying copyright works makes the following concession for copying own choice pieces from volumes only for the use of the Adjudicator at a festival, provided that the entrant or participant has already purchased his/her own copy and that the copy made is retained and destroyed by the Administrator of the festival immediately after the event. This permission specifically does not apply to set works.

GENERAL RULES

1. The closing date for entries is as stated in each section
2. Except where specific section rules apply, the age limit date for group entries is 1 September. For individual entries it is the first day of any section competition. The signature on the entry form will be the guarantee that the competitor's age is correct. The committee reserves the right to request to see a birth certificate should any question arise.
3. Competitors must be amateur* bona fide members of the organisation they represent.
Amateur is defined as a person who does not make his/her living, by performing or teaching, in the discipline involved; e.g. a teacher may be allowed to enter, at the Festivals discretion, if playing a different instrument from that upon which he/she makes a living.
4. Entry fees are non-refundable.
5. To comply with the Safe Guarding Policy and Privacy Policy the Official Nuneaton Festival of Arts entry form MUST be completed and signed.
6. Email entries will be accepted, however, cheque/cash/bank transfer for the entry fee together with the signed declarations on the application form MUST be received by the section secretary by the closing date for entries. The email MUST give all the information requested on the entry form, (Entry forms are available to download on the Festival website).
7. Competitors are limited to the number of entries they can make. Please see individual sections for the number of entries allowed.
8. The Committee may decline to accept an entry or may limit, cancel or subdivide any competition.
9. First, second and third place certificates may be awarded in each class to competitors who gain the three highest number of marks. The Adjudicator may, at his/her discretion, withhold the award of a first or second place certificate where there are fewer than three competitors and a third place certificate where there are less than ten competitors. In the event of a tie for one of the places, a certificate will be awarded to each competitor gaining the relevant mark. An Adjudicator may also withhold place awards and trophies where he/she considers that the standard is not sufficiently high to merit them. Certificates of Achievement will be awarded in accordance with the Adjudicator's decision.
10. The Adjudicator's decision is final.
11. Trophies are awarded for a nominal year only. All trophies must be returned the following year to the section secretary by the date stated on the Trophy receipts.
12. Winners of classes should be prepared to take part in a Festival concert or event if required to do so
PERFORMING ARTS ONLY (Piano, Speech and Drama, Stage Dancing, Vocal, Woodwind, Strings and Brass)
13. (Not applicable to Stage Dancing) Competitors will only be admitted on production of their admission cards. These will be forwarded to the competitors and will be applicable for the session indicated on the card. Competitors who have not received the card fourteen days before the adjudication period should contact the section secretary.
14. The order of competing is determined at the Section Secretary's discretion.
15. Every effort will be made to adhere to the schedule, however, should alterations be necessary, entrance fees will not be returned after the programme has been finalised and adjudicator and venue booked.
16. Competitors who do not respond when called upon to perform may be disqualified.
17. Competitors must collect adjudication sheets, copies of music, texts and any certificates from the Adjudicator's steward at the end of each class. (For Stage Dancing only - collect at the end of the day). Requests for posting these must be agreed with that steward and postage prepaid.
18. No competitor may perform more than once in the same class OR play the same piece in more than one class.
19. No photography or filming by equipment of any kind, including mobile phones, is allowed during performances. Permission for photographs of their own child receiving an award, for personal use, may be given by the section secretary, upon request.
20. (a) The services of an official accompanist are provided under terms stated in the section rules and conditions of entry. If a competitor brings his/her own accompanist, the Adjudicator may take in to account the adequacy of the accompanist when assessing the performance. (b) Any competitor requiring the services of an official accompanist must forward one copy of their 'Own Choice' to the section secretary as detailed in that section's programme. All competitors must supply one copy for the use of the Adjudicator, this to be handed to the section organiser before the commencement of the class concerned. 'Own choice' copies must be legible.

'The Music Publisher's Association Code of Practice on photocopying copyright works makes the following concessions for copying own choice pieces from volumes only for the use of the adjudicator at a festival, provided that the entrant or participant has already purchased his/her own copy and that the copy made is retained and destroyed by the administrator of the festival immediately after the event. This permission specifically does not apply to set works. Single copies of items may not be photocopied without the prior permission of the copyright holder.'

ALL SECTIONS

21. Any complaint about the infringement of these rules must be made to the appropriate section secretary WITHIN THIRTY MINUTES of the end of the class concerned. (Performing Arts sections), or ONE WEEK from the close of the presentation event. (All other sections).
22. Any changes to the rules shall be made at the Annual General Meeting. All proposed changes must be submitted to the general secretary, in writing, at least three weeks before this meeting. The general secretary shall then call a meeting of the Executive Committee, which will report upon the proposed change to the rules to the AGM. Then if necessary, make recommendations concerning the proposed change.
22. The Committee reserves the right to decide on any matter not covered by these rules.
