Adjudicator: Nicola Moreland. I was a teacher for 35 years and thoroughly enjoyed teaching History to 11-18 years old and working with teachers to develop their classroom pedagogy. I even found ways of combining my love of textiles and the arts by teaching a module in Russian art to my A Level students!

I have been sewing and knitting for nearly 50 years and like many of us I was taught by my mum and grandmother. I have always looked for ways to continue to learn and develop my skills by attending embroidery and sewing lessons by extremely knowledgeable tutors; seeking out exhibitions and talking to textile artists both at a local and national level; being a member of The Embroiders Guild; completing textile design modules; and I have attended specialist workshops led by The Royal School of Needlework and the V & A. I am looking forward to adjudicating once more in 2026.

Adjudicator - Junior Classes: Anita Willars

Nuneaton Festival of Arts is pleased to welcome Anita back again in 2026.

Dear Writers,

I feel very honoured and privileged to be asked by the Nuneaton Festival of Arts to judge the entries for the Junior Original Writing Section of the Nuneaton Festival of Arts.

I learnt to read very early in my life and loved to lose myself in the stories and I am still an avid reader. I struggled with writing at first as English was my second language but I was lucky to have a very special teacher who encouraged and helped me to write my ideas down.

This experience led me to want to teach which I did for many years before becoming an Adviser for Warwickshire County Council and later for the Government's Curriculum and Assessment Department. One aspect of my role that I thoroughly enjoyed was to look at children's writing and over the years I must have read thousands and thousands of pieces of writing from primary age children.

We accept photocopies of children's work, but please do justice to your children's writing by ensuring that all the words are readable.

Adjudicator – Adult Classes: Michelle Meli

Dear Writers,

I am very honoured to be reading your work for the Festival of Arts this year. As a lecturer of English Literature and Language for over twenty years, I have a passion for reading and writing that started from a very young age (I am still scarred from Bill Sykes killing Nancy!)

I have taught many students of different ages and backgrounds and am consistently astounded at their creative skills.

My advice to you would be to 'flow' with your writing, often we think we know what we want to write, but then something else takes over. Something magical that guides the pen (or keyboard): go with it.

Good luck!

Adjudicator: Brian Phillips

Photography first captured Brian's imagination as a boy in the early 1960's. Beginning as a simple hobby with a second-hand Kodak Autographic 1A bellows camera and an endless curiosity about the world through a lens.

By the 1970's his images were already being noticed, with some of his photographs of music venues appearing in the local newspaper. They were taken in the evening and processed in his darkroom/bathroom to be delivered to the newspaper the next morning. A proud early achievement that reflected his skill and passion.

In later life, the opportunity arose to turn his lifelong hobby into a profession. Together with his wife Marie, he opened a photography and design studio (ESP Design Studio) in Bulkington in 2001. The studio quickly became known for its welcoming atmosphere and quality of work, specialising in wedding and portrait photography, as well as commercial commissions. While he was behind the camera, capturing milestones and moments, Marie brought her own artistic talents to the business, creating bespoke jewellery and stationery for clients. Their partnership in life and business made the studio a true family enterprise, blending artistry with a personal approach.

In 2010, Brian retired due to ill health, closing the studio and the professional chapter of his photographic journey. - A. General: The aim of these arrangements is to ensure the smooth running, good hanging and security of your work. Exhibits to be displayed in the white and yellow gallery at the Nuneaton and Bedworth museum.
Only Museum and Art gallery staff will arrange and hang works. All pictures must be framed, clip frames are not appropriate. The Museum and Art gallery's decision on inclusion will be final.
- B. COMMISSION - ADULT ENTRIES ONLY - Your entry can be for sale, the sale will be handled by the Nuneaton Museum. Sales commission is 25% plus VAT
- C. Labelling of Work:
All works must have 2 labels, the first on the back with the artist's name, title of work, medium, current price and number on the final list. The second label should be attached to a string onto the hanging cord, so that it can be clearly seen if hung over the face of the work; this helps staff enormously when checking and hanging the exhibition. For displays in the Yellow Gallery - classes 31 to 51, all framed works must be securely screw eyed and strung ready for hanging; those not strung cannot be displayed. The framing needs to be firm, rigid, sturdy in good condition and appropriate to the size of the work.
- D. *Acceptance, Display and Return of Works:
The Museum will issue the artist with a receipt form to complete. On deposit of work, Museum staff will check off the condition of the works. A copy of the receipt is given to the artist, who then brings it at the end of the exhibition to identify, check and collect work. All children's work on paper must be backed onto card so that it doesn't tear. Time must be allowed for the condition of each individual work to be assessed and agreed by both the artist, or their authorised representative and a member of the Gallery staff.
All works shall continue to be displayed until the official end of the exhibition, when they will be available for collection.
Results will be available 3 days after adjudication on the Festival's website or from Nuneaton Museum and Art Gallery after 10.30 am on the opening day of the exhibition.
LATE COLLECTION WILL BE CHARGED AT £1 PER DAY AND NO RESPONSIBILITY WILL BE TAKEN FOR CONDITION OF ENTRIES AFTER THIS DATE. THEY WILL BE DISPOSED OF AFTER 2 WEEKS.
N.B. Entrants must bring their receipts when collecting work and must telephone the Museum and Art Gallery with the name of the proxy if arranging for someone else to collect their work.
- E. Insurance:
Nuneaton and Bedworth Borough Council does not accept responsibility for loss or damage to articles lent for temporary exhibitions, unless such loss or damage arises directly as a result of negligence on the part of the Council or its officer.
- F. Entries - 'DUE TO THE SPACE AVAILABLE AT THE MUSEUM AND THE LARGE NUMBER OF ENTRIES WE ARE NOW RECEIVING, WE HAVE HAD TO RESTRICT THE NUMBER OF ENTRIES PER PERSON/SCHOOL/COLLEGE PLEASE NOTE NUMBERS OF ENTRIES ALLOWED'.

2026 Festival of Arts: Art, Craft, Needlecraft and Photography- Hanging Requirements

All Art (classes 31 - 51) and Photography classes must be labelled and framed and securely screw eyed and strung ready for hanging. Children's' Art on paper must be backed onto card for display.

All framed wall based work for Craft, Needlecraft, Photography being displayed needs to be appropriately strung and labelled. Stretched canvas on a frame is acceptable. Solid heavy boards may not be accepted or hung. These guidelines are also relevant to any children's work to be shown, (if the work cannot be stapled directly to the wall)

A label should be attached to the back of the frame that can be hung over the front, to enable gallery staff with the hanging.

Screw eyes should be put into the frame and string attached for hanging. Please use picture string not wire, as wire makes the pictures difficult to hang. A second label should be attached to the back of the frame. Please do not attach the label that hangs over the front to the screw eye as this makes it difficult to hide during the exhibition. Please ensure the screw eyes or D rings are attached to the frame of the work and not the board at

Labels need to be attached to all framed and unframed work. Both labels should include the artist's name, title of the work, size and selling price (if appropriate). If the work is not for sale please put NFS. Information on labels

Please note:

Clip frames are not appropriate for hanging and work will not be accepted in clip frames. The Festival reserves the right to refuse any works that do not meet requirements.

There is a charge of £1 per item per day for the storage of uncollected work. All work should be delivered and collected on the agreed dates and times, unless prior arrangements have been made with the section secretary/ publicity officer.

Copies of the Safeguarding/GDPR/Privacy Policies can be found in the main syllabus/from the website (www.nuneatonfoa.org.uk) Any queries should be addressed to the Festival Secretary: secretary@nuneatonfoa.org.uk

Name of Safeguarding Officer: Gwyneth Evans 07375365983

Dates: January – June annually.

Preliminary Statement:

Introduction

Nuneaton Festival of Arts has a moral and legal obligation to ensure that, when given responsibility for children all organisers, chaperones, parents/legal guardians and volunteers accept their responsibilities to safeguard children from harm and abuse. This means to ensure that everyone follows procedures to protect children and report any concerns about their welfare to appropriate authorities.

We recognise that:

- the welfare of the child/young person is paramount
- all children, regardless of age, disability, gender, racial heritage, religious belief, sexual orientation or identity, have the right to equal protection from all types of harm or abuse
- working in partnership with children, young people, their parents, carers and other agencies is essential in promoting young people's welfare.

The purpose of the policy:

- to provide protection for the children and young people who participate in our festivals, including the children of Festival members
- to provide staff and volunteers with guidance on procedures they should adopt in the event that they suspect a child or young person may be experiencing, or be at risk of, harm

We will seek to safeguard children and young people by:

- valuing them, listening to and respecting them
- adopting child protection guidelines through procedures and safe working practice for staff and volunteers
- recruiting staff and volunteers safely, ensuring all necessary checks are made
- sharing information about child protection and safe working practice with children, parents, staff and volunteers
- sharing information about concerns with agencies who need to know, and involving parents and children appropriately
- providing effective management for staff and volunteers through supervision, support and training.

The Federation will review this policy each year in November in line with Safe Network guidance or sooner in light of any changes in legislation or guidance. All changes will be communicated to our member Festivals in time for the start of the new Festival year.

Purpose & Function of Organisation:

The objective of the festival is to provide a platform for amateur performance and to advance the education of the public in the Arts, both the Performing Arts and Visual Arts. This policy relates to children under the age of 18 years and those vulnerable adults of any age who are identified to the organisers prior to their arrival at the festival. The organisers actively seek to meet special needs notified to them by parent, guardians, carers/teachers.

The Festival Environment:

Our festivals are held in a variety of buildings, though performers/competitors do not need to move between them unless attending different events. All have areas open to the public. The Nuneaton festival of Arts is a charity (Registered Charity (Number 1041379)) and is run by volunteers.

To whom does this policy apply?

This policy relates to children under the age of 18 years and members of vulnerable groups of any age whose needs are identified to the festival organisers by parents/guardians/carers and/or teachers prior to their arrival at our festival. We do this by ensuring that you receive a copy of this policy at the time you are making arrangements to attend our festival.

Festival Personnel:

Festival helpers are recruited through section organisers and through local press/ publications. The Festival secretary holds names and addresses of all members of the Festival Committee and stewards. They will be identifiable at events by badges. Any problems should be referred to them. All concerns will be documented and dated. Job descriptions are provided for section organisers, their assistants, volunteers and members of the Executive. All jobs are reviewed to see if they need enhanced CRB checks.

Preparation for Attendance at the Festival:

This policy is sent out in the Festival syllabus and is available on our web site. It is sent to individual entrants with their tickets – the fact that individuals arrive for the appropriate classes indicates that they have also received the policy. A letter is sent to private teachers and group leaders with the policy. This letter has to be signed and returned to the section organizer as proof that the information has been passed to parents. Entries cannot be accepted unless a declaration has been signed and returned as it may damage our organisation if participants fail to follow our safeguarding policy. One copy of the policy is sent to state/private schools where the entries are “school regulated events” (i.e. the teacher accompanies the pupils because it is a school activity). It is assumed that the school has done all that is necessary to gain permission from parents for the children to attend. Where parents/guardians/carers are not personally attending with their children, this policy requires them to be satisfied that their children will be accompanied to the festival and adequately supervised by responsible adults acting on their behalf. The policy is sent to parents/guardians/carers/teachers so that they become partners in implementing this policy.

Performance Areas and Changing Areas:

Whilst every effort will be made to provide a safe environment at the Festival, children are the responsibility of their parents/guardians/carers/teachers in charge. The Festival is run by volunteers and no supervision is provided between classes or in the lunch break. Public areas, practice rooms, toilets and changing areas will not be supervised by festival stewards on the days of the Festival. This is the responsibility of adults accompanying children and young people.

Photographs, Digital Video Recording & Press Photography:

No recording, photography or video filming will be allowed in any class at the Festival. The committee reserves the right to require any person infringing this rule to leave the room where the class is being held. All mobile phones must be switched off during classes.

Definitions of Child Abuse and Neglect

A child is abused or neglected when somebody inflicts harm, or fails to act to prevent harm. A child or young person up to the age of 18 years can suffer abuse or neglect and require protection.

- Physical Abuse - May involve hitting, shaking, throwing, poisoning, burning or scalding, drowning or suffocating or otherwise causing physical harm to a child.
- Physical harm may also be caused when a parent or carer fabricates or induces illness in a child whom they are looking after.
- Sexual Abuse - Forcing or enticing a child/young person to take part in sexual activities, whether or not they are aware of what is happening, may involve: physical contact, including penetrative or non-penetrative acts; non-contact activities, such as involving children in looking at, or in the production of pornographic material or watching sexual activities; or encouraging children to behave in sexually inappropriate ways.
- Neglect - Neglect is the persistent failure to meet a child's basic physical and/or psychological needs, likely to result in the serious impairment of the child's health or development. It may involve a parent or carer failing to provide adequate food, shelter and clothing, failing to protect a child from physical harm or danger, or the failure to ensure access to appropriate care or treatment. It may also include neglect of, or unresponsiveness to, a child's basic emotional needs.
- Emotional Abuse - The persistent emotional ill-treatment of a child such as to cause severe and persistent adverse effects on the child's emotional and behavioural development. It may involve conveying to the child that they are worthless or unloved, inadequate, or valued only in so far as they meet the needs of another person. It may feature age and developmentally inappropriate expectations being imposed on children. It may involve causing children to feel frightened or in danger, for example witnessing domestic abuse within the home or being bullied, or the exploitation or corruption of children. Some level of emotional abuse is involved in all types of ill treatment of a child, though it may occur alone.

Review

The organisers will regularly review the policy, revising and enhancing it as necessary. In doing this they will look to the British and International Federation of Festivals for support. That body, in turn, will look to other agencies for good practice, most notably the NSPCC and Arts Council of England policy guidelines.
