ADJUDICATOR: Nathan Parker

Nathan Parker is an internationally known street artist based in Nuneaton, specializing in large-scale mural art created with spray paint. With over 30 years of experience and a First-Class Honours degree in Illustration from Manchester Metropolitan University, Nathan has created murals across the UK,

His inspiration is drawn from Aboriginal art and graffiti, where he finds aesthetic and conceptual influences, including visual languages, dual meanings, and cultural elements. Nathan's art often captures a sense of movement and narrative.

Beyond his artistry, Nathan has conducted workshops in various settings, including community centres, youth clubs, schools, and secure facilities, nurturing creativity and artistic skills within communities.

Nathan's murals are typically site-specific, responding to the locale and the community they are located in, allowing for direct interaction and feedback. Notable commissions include a mural at Digbeth Coach Station in Birmingham, celebrating 50 years of Black Sabbath, and a mural honouring England's footballers during the Euro finals.

His portfolio also includes smaller works exhibited globally in cities such as London, New York, Rome, Paris, Sydney, and Melbourne. Nathan has collaborated with clients like Red Bull, Channel 4, Stagecoach, LCFC, Leicester Tigers, Carling, Big Issue, Coventry City of Culture, Custard Factory and John Lewis.

Nathan has actively participated in various festivals, including Journey Festival International, City of Culture 2021 (Coventry), Upfest (Bristol), Bring The Paint (Leicester), High Vis (Birmingham), Cheltenham Paint Festival, Leamington Art in The Park, and Godiva Festival (Coventry), contributing to the contemporary art scene. His work continues to engage communities and art enthusiasts alike.

Adjudicator - Junior Classes: Anita Willars

Dear Writers,

I feel very honoured and privileged to be asked by the Nuneaton Festival of Arts to judge the entries for the Junior Original Writing Section of the Nuneaton Festival of Arts.

I learnt to read very early in my life and loved to lose myself in the stories and I am still an avid reader. I struggled with writing at first as English was my second language but I was lucky to have a very special teacher who encouraged and helped me to write my ideas down.

This experience led me to want to teach which I did for many years before becoming an Adviser for Warwickshire County Council and later for the Government's Curriculum and Assessment Department. One aspect of my role that I thoroughly enjoyed was to look at children's writing and over the years I must have read thousands and thousands of pieces of writing from primary age children.

Today I am a Governor at two schools where I have responsibility for monitoring Literacy which again gives me the opportunity to read children's amazing and imaginative writing.

So I really look forward to reading your entries.

We accept photocopies of children's work, but please do justice to your children's writing by ensuring that all the words are readable.

I am an enthusiastic member of a writing group that meets weekly to share and critique our work.

Adjudicator: Jim Jarvis

My first steps into photography was when my Dad gave me a fully loaded (12 exposure film) in my Brownie 127 for my school trip to London when I was 10 way back in 1966, needless to say I shot the whole roll! That was that and so between me and my Dad we built an enlarger out of a Fox's Glacier Mint tin and secure adjustable vertical bar and base board plus an old set of bellows and lens and away I went with producing black and white enlargements as well as film development, all this came to an abrupt end when my counterpane on my bed fell to pieces due to the chemicals, Mum wasn't too happy!

Move forward to roughly 1978 'ish and I was apprentice in the Light Alloy Metallurgical laboratory at Sterling Metals in Nuneaton where my photographic skills surfaced once again. A few short years later I was offered the job as photographer with the newly produced Nuneaton and Bedworth Trader free paper, a chance I took with both hands and the start of a smashing 30 odd year employment seeing me getting to see and get involved in varying Press Calls. It was certainly a dream come true and not bad to be paid for your hobby.

There were local events and of course plenty of sport to cover, where you only had that one roll of film to get an image to portray that event. One excellent example of this was when I was covering the 1987 FA Cup final of Coventry City vs Tottenham Hotspur I was fortunately level on the side of the pitch when a header was sent towards the goal and as I hit the camera button the ball was in the net and my camera had stopped firing, with no screen to check your shots, I had to wait until I was back in the office to develop my films. It was a 36 exposure b& w film with the flying headed goal being recorded perfectly on exposure No 37! Sometimes you get lucky

Jim is very much looking forward to adjudicating the photography section again at the 2025 Nuneaton Festival of Arts

Adjudicator: David Beer BA(Hons) FLCM, PGCE

David Beer trained as a choral and orchestral conductor and, while studying for a BA in Music in Hull, was a member of the University Choir, performing many of the great choral works. This instilled in him a love of choral music and while teaching music in Hull, he sang in Hull Choral Union and conducted Humberside Festival Chorus.

He left teaching to pursue a career as a professional conductor and vocal coach of shows in the West End. During a career that spanned over 30 years he conducted many popular shows including Aspects of Love, Cats, Me and My Girl, Fame, We Will Rock You, and Jesus Christ Superstar. During this time, he also taught singing at many leading drama colleges including RADA, Arts Educational Schools, Italia Conti and Guildhall School of Music and Drama.

Since retiring from full time professional conducting, David has returned to choral music and has, over the last 10 years, conducted major works for 2 choral societies in Bedfordshire, been Musical Director of the Military Wives Choir, and formed his own very successful chamber choir. He accompanies Grimsby Philharmonic Choir and Biggleswade Choral Society, of which he is also guest conductor.

He adjudicates choral and vocal sections in Festivals across the UK for the Federation of Festivals and for Music For Youth. He is an examiner for London College of Music specialising in Music Theatre and Pop Vocals.

ART

Conditions and Guidance Notes 2025

- A. General: The aim of these arrangements is to ensure the smooth running, good hanging and security of your work. Exhibits to be displayed in the white and yellow gallery
Only Museum and Art gallery staff will arrange and hang works. All pictures must be framed, clip frames are not appropriate. The Museum and Art gallery's decision on inclusion will be final.
- B. Sale of Work:
Artists over 18 years of age may submit up to 3 pieces of their own artwork for sale in this exhibition.
When pricing work, artist should bear in mind that the sale price should be inclusive of 25% commission and 25% VAT (on commission) charged on sales by the Museum and Art Gallery
Sales are dealt with by the Museum and Art Gallery staff. Cheques from purchasers are made payable to the artist.
The artist will be paid after the exhibition has finished
Only works which are present at the Museum and Art Gallery can be sold through the exhibition.
- C. Labelling of Work:
All works must have 2 labels, the first on the back with the artist's name, title of work, medium, current price and number on the final list. The second label should be attached to a string onto the hanging cord, so that it can be clearly seen if hung over the face of the work; this helps staff enormously when checking and hanging the exhibition
For displays in the Yellow Gallery - classes 31 to 51, all framed works must be securely screw eyed and strung ready for hanging; those not strung cannot be displayed. The framing needs to be firm, rigid, sturdy in good condition and appropriate to the size of the work.
- D. *Acceptance, Display and Return of Works:
The Museum will issue the artist with a receipt form to complete. On deposit of work, Museum staff will check off the condition of the works. A copy of the receipt is given to the artist, who then brings it at the end of the exhibition to identify, check and collect work.
Time must be allowed for the condition of each individual work to be assessed and agreed by both the artist, or their authorised representative and a member of the Gallery staff.
- All works shall continue to be displayed until the official end of the exhibition, when they will be available for collection.
Results will be available 3 days after adjudication on the Festival's website or from Nuneaton Museum and Art Gallery after 10.30 am on the opening day of the exhibition.
LATE COLLECTION WILL BE CHARGED AT £1 PER DAY AND NO RESPONSIBILITY WILL BE TAKEN FOR CONDITION OF ENTRIES AFTER THIS DATE. THEY WILL BE DISPOSED OF AFTER 2 WEEKS.
- N.B. Artists must bring their receipt when collecting work and must telephone the Museum and Art Gallery with the name of the proxy if arranging for someone else to collect their work.
- E. Insurance:
Nuneaton and Bedworth Borough Council does not accept responsibility for loss or damage to articles lent for temporary exhibitions, unless such loss or damage arises directly as a result of negligence on the part of the Council or its officer.

Please note: You will have to complete delivery and collection forms for the Museum when entering work. You can obtain these forms in advance from the Museum, this may help save time when you deliver your work.

2025 Festival of Arts: Hanging Requirements

All Art (classes 31 - 51) and Photography classes must be labelled and framed and securely screw eyed and strung ready for hanging. These guidelines are also relevant to any children's work if framed., other children's work will be Bluetacked or pinned on display boards.

A label should be attached to the back of the frame that can be hung over the front, to enable gallery staff with the hanging.

Screw eyes should be put into the frame and string attached for hanging. Please use picture string not wire, as wire makes the pictures difficult to hang. A second label should be attached to the back of the frame. Please do not attach the label that hangs over the front to the screw eye as this makes it difficult to hide during the exhibition. Please ensure the screw eyes or D rings are attached to the frame of the work and not the board at

Safeguarding Policy (Implemented October 2012)

Name and Address of Organisation: Nuneaton Festival of Arts, 74, Shakespeare Drive, Nuneaton. CV11 6JR

Name and Address of Chairperson: Mrs Gwyn Evans, 27, Fox's Covert. Fenny Drayton. CV13 6BQ

Venues; Nuneaton Museum & Art Gallery, Salvation Army Citadel, Abbey Theatre/Arts Centre, Chilvers Coton Parish Hall, Nuneaton & Bedworth Civic Hall, Nuneaton Library. Atkins Building, Hinckley. 'W' Building KE6S, Ropewalk shopping venue, Nuneaton.

Dates: January – June annually.

Preliminary Statement: The safety of vulnerable adults and children is paramount and all, without exception, have the right to protection from abuse. All suspicions and allegations of abuse will be taken seriously, responded to swiftly and appropriately and all the charity's trustees/organisers/staff/volunteers have a responsibility to report concerns.

Purpose & Function of Organisation: The objective of the Festival is to provide a platform for amateur Performance and to advance the education of the public in the Arts, both the Performing Arts and Visual Arts.

The Festival Environment: Our festivals are held in a variety of buildings, though performers/competitors do not need to move between them unless attending different events. All have areas open to the public. The Nuneaton Festival of Arts is a charity (Registered Charity Number 1041379) and is run by volunteers.

To whom does this policy apply?: This policy relates to children under the age of 18 years and members of vulnerable groups of any age whose needs are identified to the festival organisers by parents/guardians/carers and/or teachers prior to their arrival at our festival. The organisers actively seek to meet special needs notified to them. We do this by ensuring that you receive a copy of this policy at the time you are making arrangements to attend our festival.

Festival Personnel: Festival helpers are recruited through section organisers and through local press/ publications. The Festival secretary holds names and addresses of all members of the Festival Committee and stewards. They will be identifiable at events by name badges; (Section Secretaries have a green badge), any problems should be referred to them. All concerns will be documented and dated. Job descriptions are provided for section organisers, their assistants, volunteers and members of the Executive. All jobs are reviewed to see if they need enhanced CRB checks.

Preparation for Attendance at the Festival: This policy is sent out in the Festival syllabus and is available on our web site. It is sent to individual entrants with their tickets – the fact that individuals arrive for the appropriate classes indicates that they have also received the policy. A letter is sent to private teachers and group leaders with the policy. This letter has to be signed and returned to the section organizer as proof that the information has been passed to parents. Entries cannot be accepted unless a declaration has been signed and returned as it may damage our organisation if participants fail to follow our safeguarding policy. One copy of the policy is sent to state/private schools where the entries are "school regulated events" (i.e. the teacher accompanies the pupils because it is a school activity). It is assumed that the school has done all that is necessary to gain permission from parents for the children to attend. Where parents/guardians/carers are not personally attending with their children, this policy requires them to be satisfied that their children will be accompanied to the festival and adequately supervised by responsible adults acting on their behalf. The policy is sent to parents/guardians/carers/teachers so that they become partners in implementing this policy.

Performance Areas and Changing Areas: Whilst every effort will be made to provide a safe environment at the Festival, children are the responsibility of their parents/guardians/carers/teachers in charge. The Festival is run by volunteers and no supervision is provided between classes or in the lunch break. Public areas, practice rooms, toilets and changing areas will not be supervised by Festival Stewards on the days of the Festival. This is the responsibility of adults accompanying children and young people.

Photographs, Videotapes & Press Photography: No tape recording, photography, mobile phone or video filming of any kind will be allowed in any class at the Festival. The committee reserves the right to require any person infringing this rule to leave the room where the class is being held. All mobile phones must be switched off during classes.

Legislation and Guidance supporting this policy:

The Rehabilitation of Offenders Act 1974. The Children Act 1989/2004. The Police Act 1997. The Data Protection Act 1998. The Human Rights Act 1998. The Protection of Children Act 1999. The Criminal Justice and Court Services Act 2000. The Protection of Vulnerable Groups Act 2000.

Review: The organisers will regularly review the policy, revising and enhancing it as necessary. In doing this they will look to the British and International Federation of Festivals for support. That body, in turn, will look to other agencies for good practice, most notably the NSPCC and Arts Council of England policy guidelines.
